From the East

I would like to begin by thanking everyone who attended our February meeting. It was a joy to see so many in Lodge, and put me under a little needed pressure in preparation for our March Meeting.

I would like to also congratulate our winner of the Annual Chili Cook-Off, my mother, Linda Morse-Gill, who's chili was excellent, but our other contender, other than myself, WB Carl Fjelsted certainly deserves praise for his contribution. Special thanks should go to your Junior Warden, WB Jim Fulton for his assistance in rounding out the meal with corn bread, rice, tortillas, and tortilla chips, along with numerous toppings.

Our March meeting will be the Official Visit of our Grand Master, Most Worshipful Dean Heinemann. Our Junior Warden is preparing a prime-rib dinner in his honor. The meeting will be a formal affair, so I hope you all have your Tuxes or Dark Suits available.

I would like to also remind every member that District 9 has a very excellent Lodge Officers Association that meets the 4th Wednesday (often the day after our stated meetings), and it would do you a lot of good to attend the meetings, if for no other reason that to meet with brethren outside the confines of lodge. However, there are many pieces of protocol, instruction, and ideas that are presented at these meetings, and I have found it valuable to listen to the concerns of different lodges, their of

From the Secretary's Desk

Thank you to those of you who have sent your dues and assessments for 2013. If you have not done so please do at your earliest convenience. For members who are not Life Members, 2013 Dues cards will be mailed upon receipt of payment. No one wants that feeling of walking around without a current Masonic dues card!

ficers, and the members, as well as have a frank and honest discussions of events that affect not only this lodges, but the future of the Grand Lodge.

In the coming months, we have a couple of obligations to fulfill. We have at least one degree to perform, we have a scholarship night to host, Grand Lodge in Spokane, a trip to Everett 137 and a reception of them in our lodge for our annual Summer closing. All-in-all I think we will have a good year, and look forward to everything we have forthcoming.

See you in Lodge,
Thomas E. Gill
