From the East

It has been an interesting month for Langley Lodge. We have added another brother to our ranks, Richard Baccigalupi. The obligation was expertly delivered by WB Tony Gill, and as always VW Marion Windel did a superb job with the education portions. Thanks go out to all the brothers who assisted in the degree, and to Whidby Island #15 for use of their lodge room and building for the degree. I look forward to his immersion into the craft and I hope you will all join me in making him feel welcome and assisting him along this journey.

In early May, a cadre of Officers took Bro. Richard to Fidalgo Lodge #77 in order to introduce him to the district and to see another lodge in action. WB

George Brown did a great job, as did RW Don Munks in closing. As the only lodge to put together a posse, we were able to claim the traveling gavel, and look forward to another lodge coming to our May meeting in order to claim it.

In June we have our annual visit to Everett #137 to close their lodge for the summer. They will also be visiting Langley at the end of the month to close our lodge, and while we no longer go dark in the summer, it is still a great opportunity to have fellowship with brethren we do not often see.

June is also the month of the Annual Communication of Grand Lodge, and as such, many of the Past Masters, as well as myself will be trekking across the state to Spokane to help to shape the future of Grand Lodge. Remember, we collectively are the Grand Lodge of Washington and if you have any opinions about the resolutions or whom you would like to see as our Grand Master in four years, don't hesitate to let myself or one of the past masters know so we can do our best to vote for the good of the order. To read the resolutions or to learn about the candidates for Junior Grand Warden, visit the Grand Lodge website at freemason-wa.org, and click on Annual Communication.

See you in Lodge,
Thomas E. Gill

Website Update

As you may, or may not be aware, Langley 218 has a website. Our website contains many links to Masonic Education, as well as a calendar of events for the entire district.

You will also find the Minutes of our Stated and Special Communications, as well as any special communication that is emailed to the members of the lodge.

Please, if you have any comments about the content or design, let me know, as the site is for your reference, but I need to know what works best for you and what you want to see.
