From the East

Our May stated meeting was a rousing success. Our scholarship recipients were certainly people worthy of the honor. Emma Lungren, Chloe Huffman, and Jonathon Peterson were well received and were a pleasure to have at our presentation.

The Annual Communication of Grand Lodge is June 13-15, in Wenatchee. Provided everything goes according to plan, our good friend, RWB Sam Roberts will be elected Grand Master for the coming year, RWB Don Munks will be Deputy Grand Master, and RWB Jim Mendoza will be Senior Grand Warden. I hope you will be able to attend Grand Lodge, as I find it quite informative, and it is a lot of fun meeting brethren from around the state.

On June 9th, Langley Lodge made our annual visit to Everett 137 to close lodge. There was a lot of constructive fellowship, and I am looking forward to their visit this month. Most of our officers were in attendance, including VWB Paul Steinsiek, who filled the marshal position in their lodge.

Our June stated meeting will be June 24th, and our brethren from Everett will be in attendance. This will be our Hawaiian shirt night, with tri-tips for dinner and strawberry short-cake for dessert.

Just a reminder that the Whidbey Island Area Fair (fka The Island County Fair) is coming July 31st through August 3rd, and WBs Milo Milfs and Carl Fjelsted are working hard on our booth. If you wish to help setup or staff the booth, please contact Carl at secretary@langley218.com.
