F&AM of Washington
July 2015 Trestleboard

From the East

The visit of Everett 137 was a great success. We had a fabulous meal and some great fellowship with our brothers from across the water. Having MW Don Munks and Sam Roberts attend was an added bonus to the evening. As we look forward there are a couple of events that are worth mentioning. First we have Lori from Ryan's House, a youth homeless resource on the island making a presentation at lodge for our July stated. She will be giving an overview of what Ryan's House is and the services it provides. Then she will address specifically how we as a lodge and as individuals can contribute to their mission. The second is that the Island County Fair is fast approaching and we have our annual fair booth. This year we have a more visible location as well as a larger space. This should help generate increased opportunities to make contacts. Carl and Milo have done a great job organizing and preparing the booth. We now need volunteers to man the booth during the hours that the fair is open. The fair runs August 6 thru 9. Please make sure that you contact Carl or Milo to schedule your time manning the booth. We all need to pitch in to man the booth. This is one of the ways that we make ourselves visible to the community and generate interest in masonry. Carl and Milo have put a lot of work into this so let's do our part and make sure we all take our turn manning the booth.

From the Secretary:

Greetings, we are well into Summer and that means it is almost time for the Island County Fair, August 6-9. Many of you have supported the booth with your time in staffing over the last few years which is much appreciated. This year we have a larger space with great visibility near the front entrance inside the Turner Building. Our presence at the fair has been a wonderful opportunity to be visible in the community and to get the word out about Masonry, create awareness of our appendant bodies, and enlighten the community in the work that we do as Masons as well as provide an opportunity for men who may be considering Masonry to ask questions and become acquainted. We ask that you consider making yourself available to help staff the booth again this year. Brothers who have participated in the past have commented that it was an enjoyable and rewarding experience. Please contact myself (206) 491-6978 cell; email – fjelsted@whidbey.com or W.B. Milo Milfs at (360) 221-5440; email – mmmilfs@whidbey.com. I look forward to seeing you in Lodge this Tuesday night and hopefully at the Fair.
